

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

The Experiential Programs Team of the Institute of Noetic Sciences (IONS) seeks several graduate or undergraduate students in consciousness studies, transpersonal psychology, depth psychology, or related subjects for an exciting internship opportunity.

THE PROJECT

The selected candidates will assist in researching noetic themes such as inner wisdom, subjective/direct inner-knowing, intuition, and ah-ha! moments by reviewing various media (video, audio, research papers, etc.) in preparation for creating online webinar content.

As the research phase wraps up, there will be opportunities to participate in the development of course content, supplemental resources, and marketing materials as well.

LOCATION

This is “telecommuting” internship opportunity, with regular check-ins via Zoom or telephone, and occasional visits to the IONS campus (for those in the vicinity).

TIMEFRAME

Internships will start in May and June, 2018, and will wrap up between August and September, 2018. Please indicate your specific availability on the application.

TO APPLY

Please fill out our internship application form at noetic.org/internship-app (select “webinar research & development” in Project Preference section).

Application period: April 1 - May 15, 2018
